

THE 1749 MAP

This is the earliest known map of Michilimackinac. It is also the only map which indicates where the residents lived.

Outside the fort at the top of the map is "écurie a M^r Langlade"—Langlade's stable.

Near to the fort are two "fours" bake ovens.

Inside the fort along the back street beginning from the left are located: "poudriere" powder magazine, and the houses of M^r Chevalier, Joliet, Lefevre, Charles Amelin, DesRiviere, Dufresne, Bertrand, Cecile, Michel Amelin, Chevalier.

Along the next street lived L'Eguille, M^r Douaire, Parent, Beaulong, M^r Gonnevillle, Bourassa, M^r Le Command (Commandant's house), Chesnier, M^r Langlade, Les Amelin, Jiason, Jasmin.

Behind three and in front of two of the houses are located courts.

In the center of the fort is located the "place D'armes" or parade ground with a "calvaire" crucifix located in the center. Along the right side of the "place" is located a garden which adjoins the court of the Jesuits. This court lies behind the "Eglise" Church and the house of the Jesuits. At the corner of the Jesuit house is the "forge" or blacksmith shop. A small door in the fort wall gives access into an enclosed area where there is located a "glaciere" or icehouse a "four" or bake oven and a "poteau de la meridienne" post of the meridian.

Along the bottom row of houses reading from right to left are the homes of Piquet, M^r Chevalier, M^r Chevalier, Ademier (crossed out) St. Germain, "Maison des officers subalterne," or house of the junior officers, "Corps de garde" or guard house, M^r Coulonge, Nanette Blondeau, Blondeau, Richat, Ains.

Along the left side of the fort lived Amiot, Le Sergent, Hubert, Chaboyé, M^r Le fevre and behind it another house of M^r Lefevre.
