

Lawrence R. Bathchelor's Paintings Depicting Scenes from Canadian History
Assembled by Diane Wolford Sheppard, FCHSM Member

Lawrence R. Batchelor was a Canadian artist who painted a number of scenes from New France's History. The watercolors that follow are available from Library and Archives Canada (LAC) at: <http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/lac-bac/search/images>. The captions under each of the watercolors contains the following information: the title, approximate date the painting was executed, the Mikan # needed to access and download the painting; and additional identification information for LAC.

Jacques Cartier at Hochelaga (Montréal) – circa 1933 – Mikan #2895627; Acc. No. 1983-45-7 / C-010522

You can read Jacques Cartier's biography in the Dictionary of Canadian Biography Online:
http://www.biographi.ca/en/bio/cartier_jacques_1491_1557_1E.html

Jacques Cartier on Mount Royal - circa 1933; Mikan #2833444; Acc. No. 1983-45-6 / C-010521

Arrival of Ships from France – circa 1931 – Mikan #2833441; Acc. No. 1983-45-2 / C-011924

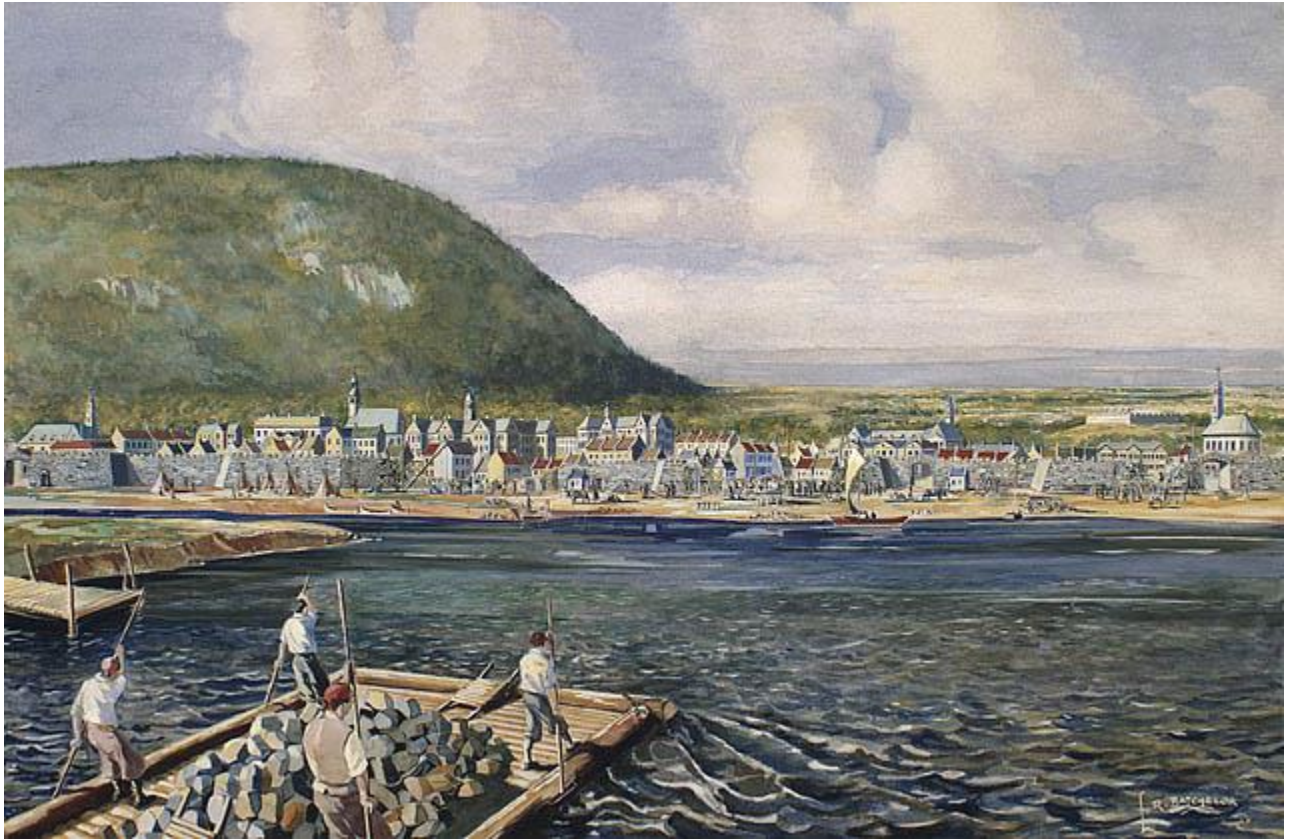

First Ursuline Nuns with Indian Pupils at Quebec – circa 1931 – Mikan # 2833440 - Acc. No. 1983-45-1 / C-010520

You can read Marie l'Incarnation's biography in the Dictionary of Canadian Biography Online at:
http://www.biographi.ca/en/bio/guyart_marie_1E.html

Jean Talon Visiting Settlers – circa 1931 – Mikan #2833442; Acc. No. 1983-45-3 / C-011925

You can read Jean Talon's Biography in the Dictionary of Canadian Biography online:
http://www.biographi.ca/en/bio/talon_jean_1E.html

Building the Walls at Montreal – circa 1933 – Mikan #2833443; Acc. No. 1983-45-4