Most books published before 1922 are available online from Google Books, www.Archive.org, or the Hathi Trust Digital Library at <http://www.hathitrust.org/>

Billard, Jules, B., editor, The World of the American Indian (Washington, D.C.: National Geographic Society, 1989).

Blair, Emma Helen, editor and translator, The Indian Tribes of the Upper Mississippi Valley and Region of the Great Lakes (Cleveland, Ohio: The Arthur H. Clark Company, 1912), Vols. 1 and 2, especially Nicolas Perrot, Memoir on the Manners, Customs, and Religion of the Savages of North America and Claude Charles Leroy Bacqueville de La Potherie/LaPotherie, History of the Savage Peoples who are allies of New France (Available as Google Books) Perrot's memoir was written about 1680; he did not use dates for most of his memoirs, but Jules Talihan, S.J., the editor of his memoir added them in brackets. Blair condensed some of Talihan's explanatory notes, but added extensive explanatory and historical material. La Potherie/LaPotherie's book was published in 1716. Blair believed that a lost memoir by Perrot furnished the material for parts of the book. LaPotherie did not arrive in New France until 1698. He did not use any dates in his book; it is only through Blair's footnotes or the mention of a French-Canadian official that one can approximate the date for information contained in his book.
