Confirmation:

On the 18th of June 1801, Msgr. Pierre Denaut, the Catholic Bishop of Québec arrived about three o'clock in the afternoon at La Rivière aux Raisins and came ashore in front of the house of Mr. J. B. Réaume (elder) where Father Dilhet, Pastor of this parish received him without solemnity. After an offering was made, which was refused by the Bishop, he was brought into the above-mentioned house by the Pastor and entered along with Father Levadoux, grand vicar of the Bishop of Baltimore, and Father Marchand, Pastor of L'Assomption du Détroit, and Father Payet, his secretary. Mr. Hubert LaCroix extended a welcome to the Bishop in the name of all the parishioners, after which a great many who were present knelt to ask the blessing of the Bishop, who gave it to all on the grounds. He requested immediately that carriages be prepared to go to the church, and these were found to be ready on the instant. He entered a carriage immediately, and over the whole way he was accompanied by nearly fifty horsemen and by a great number of others on foot. In front of all the houses people knelt to receive his blessing. Having arrived at the church, and after a light lunch, he entered the church to give the Solemn Blessing which was preceded by a discourse by Father Levadoux who announced that the Bishop of Baltimore, Jean Carol [John Carroll] has asked the Bishop of Québec to administer Confirmation in this parish, and announced the order which would be followed in this regard in the days to follow.

On Sunday, which was the next day, My Lord the Bishop of Québec, after a sermon on the Sacrament of Confirmation, administered this Sacrament to those who presented themselves at the Sacred Table for this purpose. He did the same on the next two days. Here is a list of the confirmed:
