National Genealogical Societies

- New England Historic Genealogical Society – Boston, Massachusetts – although NEHGS is not limited to French-Canadian Genealogy, based on their geographic location and the fact that many French Canadians moved to New England, their library and online resources contain a significant number of resources - <http://www.americanancestors.org/home.html>
- Société généalogique canadienne-française – Montréal (French Text): <http://www.sgcf.com/>
- Fédération québécoise des sociétés de généalogie – the Federation of Québec Genealogical Societies (French Text): <http://federationgenealogie.qc.ca/>

Regional and State or Provincial French-Canadian Societies – Many of the state and regional genealogical societies (including those in Québec) publish books which transcribe local or regional parish records.

- American-Canadian Genealogical Society, Manchester, New Hampshire: <http://www.acgs.org/>
- American-French Genealogical Society (AFGS), Woonsocket, Rhode Island: <http://www.afgs.org/>
- Center for French-Colonial Studies (Mississippi Valley and Michigan): <http://frenchcolonialstudies.org/>
- French-Canadian Genealogical Society of Connecticut (FCGSC), Tolland, Connecticut: <http://www.fcgs.org/>
- French-Canadian Heritage Society of California (FCHSC), an affiliate of the Southern California Genealogical Society: <http://www.fchsc.org/>
- Maine Franco-American Genealogical Society (MFGS), Auburn, New York: <http://www.simplesite.com/MFGSWebsite>
- Vermont French-Canadian Genealogical Society, Burlington, Vermont: <http://www.vt-fcgs.org/>

Michigan

- Detroit Society for Genealogical Research (DSGR), although not a French-Canadian Genealogical Society, DSGR published: Sharon A. Kelley, ed. Marriage Records St. Anne Church 1701-1850 (Detroit: Detroit Society for Genealogical Research, 2001) and Christian Denissen, Genealogy of the French Families of the Detroit River Region, 1701-1936 (Detroit: Detroit Society for Genealogical Research, revised edition, 1987): <http://www.dsgr.org/>
- Genealogical Society of Monroe County, Michigan, Inc., like DSGR, the Genealogical Society of Monroe County is not a French-Canadian Genealogical Society. Based on their location and the fact that the first settlers of European ancestry were primarily of French or French Canadian ancestry, many of their publications are of interest to those who ancestors lived in Monroe County. See: <http://gsmcmi.org/>
- For other genealogical societies see the site of the Michigan Genealogical Council: <http://mimgc.org/>; see their list of Michigan Genealogical and Historic Societies

Southwestern Ontario:

Société Franco-Ontarienne d'Histoire et de Généalogie (SFOHG): http://www.rpfo.ca/fr/Centres-De-Recherche-Regionaux_101

Essex County Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society; although their membership is not exclusively French Canadian, due to their location and meetings at the Windsor Public Library, they have a lot of members who are French Canadian.
