unmarried children were Joseph, Charles Amable, Bonaventure, Michel, Louise, Ursule, Ursule, and Marguerite. On 21 April 1760 when Michel Clermont was baptized, his father was described as a habitant et aide major des Milices de la coste du Sud [Ste Anne Register Part 2, image 94 – Michel’s baptism; Jetté, 154, 370; Kelley, ed., 6; Denissen, I, 293 – does not give a birth or baptismal date for Louis Dubord dit Clermont or Louise Bouron].
