

Fall 1762 Census of Détroit – Part 6 – Families Who Have No House (page 9)
Diane Wolford Sheppard and Gail Moreau-DesHarnais

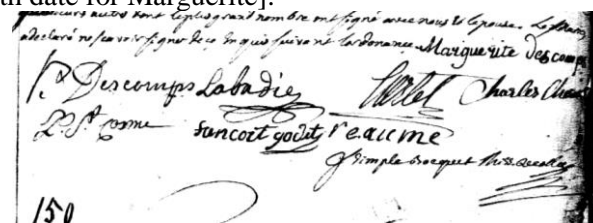

This description could refer to the possibility that the family did not own property in the area. They may have lived with relatives, worked as hired men and lived on the property where they worked, or rented property from another landowner. The only information listed on the census was the name, number of boys and number of girls.

François Barois, 4 boys. Annotations: François Lotman dit Barrois, filis, son of François Lotman dit Barrois and Françoise Savage, was born 4 April 1733 in Détroit. He married Catherine Cécire, daughter of Jean Cécire and Marie Charlotte Girard, 9 January 1758 in Ste Anne du Détroit. She was born 2 March 1735 in Détroit. Their children were Laurent François, Jean Baptiste, Léon Louis, and Alexis. When their son Léon Louis was baptized on 23 February 1761, his father was described as a habitant de la coste des poutouatamis [Ste Anne Register, images, 130, 135; Ste Anne Register Part 2, image 99 – baptism of Léon Louis; Kelley, ed., 12; Denissen, I, 46-47 – gives Catherine's baptismal date as her birth date].

Badichon, 1 girl, Annotations: Antoine Louis Descompt dit Labadie et Badichon, son of Pierre Descompt dit Labadie and Marie Angélique Lacelle, was born 19 May 1732 in Montréal. He married Angélique Campeau, son of Nicolas dit Niagara Campeau and Agathe Casse dite St. Aubin, 26 February 1759 in Ste Anne du Détroit. She was born 16 September 1742 in Détroit. Their children were Marie Angélique and Catherine. Catherine was buried 8 December 1762. When their son Jean Baptiste was baptized 7 February 1763, his father was described as demeurant chez son pere en la coste du Sorouest [Ste Anne Register, image 176; Ste Anne Register Part 2, image 113 – Jean Baptiste's baptism; PRDH, #16067 – Antoine Louis' birth from his parents' (Pierre Descompt and Marie Angélique Lacelle) family sheet; Kelley, ed., 14; Trudel, 317 - Trudel says that he had a slave in the 1762 census but the census does not say that; Denissen, I, 616 – states Antoine Louis was born in 1730].

Jebeau,<sup>1</sup> 2 boys. Annotations: Augustin Gibault dit Poitevin, Jean Baptiste Gibault and Marie Anne Paviot, was baptized 18 September 1717 in Montréal. He married Anne Larchevêque, daughter of Augustin Larchevêque and Marie Madeleine Réaume, in the pays d'en haut circa 1757-1758. Anne was born circa 1733, possibly in Fort St. Joseph and was baptized 1 January 1734 in Michilimackinac. Anne Larchevêque was the granddaughter of Jean Baptiste Réaume and Symphorose Ouaouagoukoué, his Native-American wife. Their surviving sons were Louis and Pierre. When Pierre was baptized 19 May 1762, his father was described as a master menusie (cabinet maker) demeurant à la coste du Soroist [sic] [Ste Anne Register Part 2, image 108 – Pierre's baptism; Jetté, 494; PRDH, #6941 – Augustin's baptism from his parents' (Jean Baptiste Gibault and Marie Anne Paviot) family sheet, #40575 – Augustin and Anne's couple view which states they were married at Michilimackinac; Faribault-Beauregard, Vol. I, 151, 182; Denissen, I, 521-522 – connects Augustin to the wrong parents and states he was born in 1723, a date based on his burial. Also, Denissen states that Anne was born in 1733 but does not give a location and does not mention the birth of Louis, 14 September 1758, at Fort St. Joseph]. See the profile of the Réaume Family on the French-Canadian and Native Families' Page on the FCHSM website: http://www.habitantheritage.org/native\_americans

Robert, 1 boy. Annotations: Pierre Nicolas Albert Robert, son of Pierre Robert and Marie Benoît dite Livernois, was born 27 November 1729 in Longueuil and baptized Nicolas Albert the following day. He married Madeleine Casse dite St. Aubin, daughter of Charles Casse dit St. Aubin and Thérèse Estève, 22 July 1761 in Ste Anne du Détroit. His name was recorded as Pierre at their marriage. She was born 2 October 1743 in Détroit. Pierre was their only child at the time of the census. When Pierre, fils, was baptized 13 May 1762, his father was described as a habitant demeurant a la coste du Soroist [sic] [Ste Anne Register, image 182; Ste Anne Register Part 2, image 103 – marriage of Pierre Nicolas Albert Robert and Madeleine Casse dite St. Aubin – none of the witnesses signed the register, image 108 – Pierre, fils', baptism; Jetté, 995; PRDH, #15438 – Pierre Nicolas Albert's baptism from his parents' (Pierre Robert and Marie Reine Benoît) family sheet; Kelley, ed., 15; Denissen, II, 1078 – gives Pierre Nicolas Albert's baptismal date as his birth date].

Widow Dumais, 5 boys, 2 girls. Annotations: Marie Madeleine Chevalier, daughter of Jean Baptiste Chevalier and Marie Françoise Alavoine, was baptized 12 October 1724 at Michilimackinac. She married Jacques Demers, son of Jacques Demers and Marie Barbe Brosseau, 21 July 1744 at Michilimackinac. Their surviving children were François Jacques (born 11 January 1749), Louis (born 13 June 1751 – most likely deceased by time of birth of the second Louis, who was born 3 February 1753), Pierre (baptized 12 September 1755), Joseph (baptized 21 January 1756), Jean Baptiste (baptized 3 July 1760), Madeleine (baptized as Marie, 21 July 1744), Élisabeth (born 31 October 1758), Marie Josèphe (baptized 19 March 1757). When Jacques Demers was buried 7 December 1760, he was described as a fermier (agent) for Sieur Cabassier a la coste ditte de poutouatamis. He had been killed the previous day by a Native

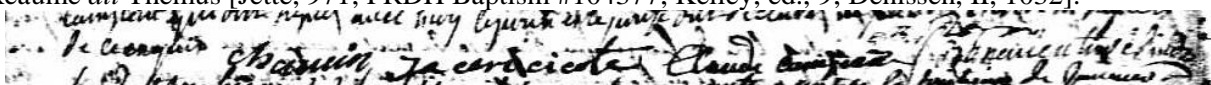

<sup>1</sup> Russell, 23 – stated that this was a reference to Étienne Gibault; however, he died 12 March 1761 in L'Assomption, Québec [PRDH, #22061].

American [Ste Anne Register Part 2, image 97 – Jacques Demers’ burial; Jetté, 248; PRDH, #84441 – Jacques Demers and Marie Madeleine Chevalier’s family sheet, which only names two children: François Jacques and Louis, who was born at Fort St. Joseph; Faribault-Beaugard, Vol. I, 143 – baptisms at Michilimackinac, 182 – baptisms at Fort St. Joseph; See Serge Demers, “Legends, The Demers family from Detroit to LaPrairie?” MHH, Vol. 19, #1, January 1998, 15-18; Denissen, I, 437 – only gives an estimated birth year for most of the children and does not mention others]. Marie Françoise Alavoine was not a Native American.
