In 1731, Henri Louis Deschamps de Boishébert, commandant of Fort Pontchartrain, drew a map of the Detroit River Region. Circa 1749, Gaspard Joseph Chaussegros de Léry is believed to have made a copy of the map when he visited the area and drew a map of the area, as well as a map of Fort Pontchartrain. Viewing the images of the 1731 map allows us to know where the Native-American Villages were located relative to Fort Pontchartrain.
