Ducet/Doucet dit Lafleur – Angélique, a Sauteuse/Chippewa/Ojibwa Family

Basil Ducet/Doucet dit Lafleur began a long-term relationship or country marriage with Angélique, a Sauteuse/Chippewa/Ojibwa before 1793. Angélique also appears to have been known as Angélique Guillbeau. They were the parents of seven children who were baptized or buried at Assumption, Ste. Anne du Détroit, and St. Jean Baptiste, Amherstburg. Three children are known to have been married at Assumption and St. Jean Baptiste, Amherstburg. As with most families who travelled to a distant parish for baptism or marriage, death and burial records are rarely available and the names of a Native Spouse are often named in an inconsistent manner. Basil Ducet/Doucet dit Lafleur died between 27 July 1813 and 25 March 1814.
