The Fafard - Couc Family:

Jean Fafard dit Macouche/Macons/Maconse, son of François Fafard and Marie Richard, was born 17 September 1657 and baptized the following day in Trois-Rivières [Jetté, p. 409]. His godparents were Bertrand Fafard and Marguerite Hayet, wife of Médard Chouart, sieur DesGroseilliers [PRDH, #87424 – Jean Fafard’s Baptism]. He married Marguerite Couc, daughter of Pierre Couc and Marie Miteouamigoué, an Algonquin, in the pays d’en haut circa 1690 (or 1686) [Jetté, p. 410 – Fafard – circa 1690; PRDH, #5626 – Fafard – Couc Family and Couple Views – before 31 December 1686]. Marguerite Couc was born 1 June and baptized 5 June 1664 in Trois-Rivières [Jetté, p. 278 – Couc]. Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc were the parents of four children who were probably born in the pays d’en haut [Jetté, p. 410; PRDH, #5626 – Fafard – Couc Family and Couple Views]. He died circa 1705, possibly in Fort St. Joseph or Détroit [Jetté, p. 410]. After Jean Baptiste’s death, she married Michel Massé, possibly in Fort St. Joseph or Détroit [Jetté, p. 785 – Massé]. See the entry for the Massé – Couc Family.

Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc’s children:

1. Jean Baptiste Fafard dit Macouche/Macons, son of Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc, was born in the pays d’en haut possibly as early as 1686 [Jetté, p. 410 – does not provide a birth date; Ste. Anne Burials, Part 2 – states he was 70-80 years’ old at his burial]. See the discussion of his family below.

2. Marguerite Fafard dite Macouche/Maconce, daughter of Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc, was born in the pays d’en haut [Jetté, p. 410]. On 25 April 1710, her marriage contract with Jean Baptiste Turpin was signed in the Détroit home of François Fafard and Marie Madeleine Jobin. Paul Tessier and Jacques Cardinal witnessed the contract [MPHSC, Vol. 34, pp. 260-261 – Turpin – Fafard Marriage Contract]. She married Jean Baptiste Turpin, son of Alexandre Turpin and Marie Charlotte Beauvais, 5 May 1710 in Fort Pontchartrain [Jetté, p. 1102 – Turpin]. Although a son was born and baptized in Detroit on 14 December 1710, he was killed by the Chickasaw Indians prior to 1736 in the Mississippi Valley. He did not marry prior to his death, therefore, no one can claim descent from this marriage. See Suzanne Boivin Sommerville’s article: “But I Read It…”: The Two Jean Baptiste Turpin Sons of Jean Baptiste Turpin in the April 2014 issue of Michigan’s Habitant Heritage.

¹ Christian Denissen, Genealogy of the French families of the Detroit River Region, 1701-1936 (Detroit: Detroit Society for Genealogical Research, revised edition, 1987) [although Denissen is fairly reliable for records in the Detroit area, it is less reliable than Jetté or PRDH for records from other areas; rarely lists all children born outside Detroit; and often confuses baptismal dates for birth dates. Researchers should verify birth dates with Jetté, PRDH, or the actual parish register. For most families, Denissen cuts off in the mid-1850s; René Jetté, Dictionnaire généalogique des familles du Québec des origines à 1730 (Montréal: Les Presses de l’Université de Montréal: 1983); Programme de recherche en démographie historique de l’Université de Montréal online: http://www.genealogie.umontreal.ca, hereafter PRDH [does not necessarily name all the children born in Détroit; the PRDH numbers generally refer to family sheets or certificates]; Sharon A. Kelley, editor, Marriage Records Ste. Anne Church 1701-1850 (Detroit: Detroit Society for Genealogical Research, 2001).
On 2 March 1708, Marguerite Fafard dite Macoue was godmother to Marguerite Campeau who was baptized in Fort Pontchartrain [Ste. Anne du Détroit, Image 22]. On 20 March 1709, she was godmother to Marguerite Marquet who was born and baptized in Fort Pontchartrain [Ste. Anne du Détroit, Image 26].

3. Marie Anne Fafard dite Macoue, daughter of Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc, was born circa 1697 in the pays d’en haut [Ste. Anne Burials, Part 2 – Marie Anne Fafard dite Macoue’s Burial in 1752 at the age of about 55]. She may have been the Marie Fafard dite Maconce who was godmother to Pierre, an Ottawa who was baptized 28 October 1710 Fort Pontchartrain [Ste. Anne du Détroit, Image 61]. Marie Anne Fafard dite Macoue married Louis Javillon dit Lafeuillade in the pays d’en haut [Jetté, p. 594 – Javillon – states they married circa 1722 and that their first three children were illegitimate; he also erroneously states they had a son baptized in Pointe Claire on 23 June 1715, however, Marie Anne Fafard dit Macoue was a godmother in Fort Pontchartrain on that date; PRDH, #14338 – Javillon – Fafard Family and Couple Views – states they married before 15 April 1723 at an unknown location, erroneously states that their son Louis was born in Détroit before 13 June 1715].

Louis Javillon dit Lafeuillade was from Limoges, Limousin (Haute-Vienne), France. On 31 August 1712, François Dauphin, Sieur de Laforest, hired him to make a voyage to Détroit [RAPQ1930, 213 – Louis Javillon’s engagé contract]. The following year on 9 July 1713, Louis Javillon dit Lafeuillade was godfather to Louis, a Huron, who was baptized in Fort Pontchartrain; he was identified as a soldier in the record [Ste. Anne du Détroit, Image 76]. Louis Javillon dit Lafeuillade and Marie Anne Fafard dit Macoue had eight children; four married. Tragically, three of their children died in March 1733 [PRDH, #14338 – Javillon – Fafard Family and Couple Views]. Marie Anne Fafard dit Macoue was buried 29 September 1752 in Ste. Anne’s cemetery at the age of about 55. Louis Javillon dit Lafeuillade was buried 20 September 1754 in Ste. Anne’s cemetery [Ste. Anne Burials, Part 2; Denissen, Vol. I, 653 – spells his surname Davignon; only lists son Joseph who married Marie Anne Lemelin 22 April 1754 in Ste Anne’s; Kelley, ed., Ste. Anne Marriages, p. 10 – Javillon – Lemelin Marriage].

Marie Anne Fafard and Louis Javillon dit Lafeuillade’s children:

- Louis Javillon dit Lafeuillade was probably born in Detroit or Fort St. Joseph during the period when both forts were without a resident priest. He married Marie Élisabeth, daughter of the deceased Onontaha, a Native American, and Marie, a Nipissing, 1 January 1743 in Oka [Lafrance; PRDH, #14338 – Javillon – Fafard Family and Couple Views].

- Marie Angélique Javillon dit Lafeuillade was born 15 August 1717 in Lachine. She married Antoine Quesnel, son of Jean Quesnel and Marie Lachaise, 9 April 1736 in Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue [Lafrance; PRDH, #14338 – Javillon – Fafard Family and Couple Views].

- Jean Baptiste Javillon dit Lafeuillade was baptized 14 July 1721 and was buried 27 July 1721 in Pointe-Claire [PRDH, #14338 – Javillon – Fafard Family and Couple Views].

- Antoine Javillon dit Lafeuillade was baptized 15 April 1723 in Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue. He died 14 March 1733 in Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue [PRDH, #14338 – Javillon – Fafard Family and Couple Views].
o Jean Javillon dit Lafeuillade was born 22 April 1725 in Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue. He was buried 29 March 1733 in Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue [PRDH, #14338 – Javillon – Fafard Family and Couple Views].

o François Marie Javillon dit Lafeuillade was born 14 February 1727 in Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue. Javillon dit Lafeuillade died 20 March 1733 in Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue.

o Joseph Javillon dit Lafeuillade was born 17 March 1731 in Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue. Joseph Javillon dit Lafeuillade married Marie Anne Lemelin, daughter of Guillaume Lemelin and Marie Louise Coutance, 22 April 1754 in Ste Anne’s [www.ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Detroit, Ste Anne, 1701-1780, Image 52; Kelley, ed, p. 10; [PRDH, #14338 – Javillon – Fafard Family and Couple Views – states they were married 26 April; Denissen, Vol. I, 653 – spells his surname Davignon; only lists son Joseph who married Marie Anne Lemelin 22 April 1754 in Ste Anne’s].

o Marie Madeleine Fafard dite Macouce/Macons, daughter of Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc, was born in the pays d’en haut [Jetté, p. 410]. Marie Madeleine Fafard dite Macouse had a daughter Aignès who was born 22 January 1723 in Montréal and buried 24 February 1723 in Montréal. Aignès was the daughter of Antoine d’Ailleboust, son of Antoine d’Ailleboust and Félicité Picard [Jetté, p. 410; PRDH, #18779 – Individual Sheet for Marie Madeleine Fafard dite Magonce [sic.]; her name is clearly spelled Macons in the record. Although Antoine d’Ailleboust is clearly named as the father of Aignès, he is not connected to her birth in Marie Madeleine Fafard’s Individual Sheet].

4. Marie Madeleine Fafard dite Macouce/Macons, daughter of Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc, was born in the pays d’en haut [Jetté, p. 410]. Marie Madeleine Fafard dite Macouse had a daughter Aignès who was born 22 January 1723 in Montréal and buried 24 February 1723 in Montréal. Aignès was the daughter of Antoine d’Ailleboust, son of Antoine d’Ailleboust and Félicité Picard [Jetté, p. 410; PRDH, #18779 – Individual Sheet for Marie Madeleine Fafard dite Magonce [sic.]; her name is clearly spelled Macons in the record. Although Antoine d’Ailleboust is clearly named as the father of Aignès, he is not connected to her birth in Marie Madeleine Fafard’s Individual Sheet].

Jean Baptiste Fafard dit Maconce’s Family:
Jean Baptiste Fafard dit Maconce/Macons, son of Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc, and grandson of Pierre Couc and Marie Miteouamigoukoué, was born in the pays d’en haut possibly as early as 1686 [Jetté, p. 410 – does not provide a birth date; his burial in 1756 states that he was 70-80 years at the time of his death]. Prior to 1715, Jean Baptiste Fafard may have married Julienne, a Miami. If he married Julienne, the marriage may have occurred at Fort St. Joseph, but the earliest extant Fort St. Joseph records date from 1720. Jean Baptiste Fafard may have had a child by Julienne. Julienne’s ultimate fate is not known [Suzanne Boivin Sommerville and Gail Moreau-DesHarnais reviewed the records for Jean Baptiste Fafard dit Maconce]

Jean Baptiste Fafard, son of the deceased Jean Fafard and Marguerite Couc, residents of this parish married Marguerite Joseph, daughter of Joseph and his wife, Hurons, 4 November 1715 in Fort Pontchartrain [www.Ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Détroit, Ste Anne, Autres Registres, 1704-1744, Image 48; Kelley, ed., Ste. Anne Marriages, p. 1; Jetté, p. 410 – states that her surname was Quéroti]. They were the parents of at least three children who were baptized in Ste. Anne’s [Jetté, p. 410; PRDH, #13691 – Fafard Family and Couple Views – does not list their children in either view and states that her surname was Dagnes; Denissen, Vol. I, p. 474 – Fafard – only lists his children by Marguerite Joseph]. Jean Baptiste Fafard dit Macouce/Macons was buried in Ste. Anne’s Cemetery 21 December 1756 at the age of about 70-80 years [www.Ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Détroit, Ste Anne, 1701-1780, Image 67].

Marriage of Jean Baptiste Fafard and Marguerite Joseph

Possible son of Jean Baptiste Fafard and Julienne:
On 23 June 1715, Fr. Hyacinthe Palfrene baptized a male named Jean, appartenant (belonging to) Jean Baptiste Macouce and Julienne, a Miami. His godparents were Étienne Roy and Marianne Fafard dit Maconce [www.Ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Détroit, Ste Anne, Autres Registres, 1704-1744, Image 41]. The use of the term appurenant in this baptismal entry cannot be explained.
Baptism of Jean

Children of Jean Baptiste Macouce and Marguerite Joseph/oagnes: [Jetté, p. 410]
1. Marguerite Fafard dit Maconze, daughter of Jean Baptiste Maconze and Marguerite ognes, in legitimate marriage, was baptized 9 March 1722. Her godparents were Joseph Parent and Marguerite Demers/Dumais [www.Ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Détroit, Ste Anne, Autres Registres, 1704-1744, Image 89 – Jetté, p. 410 – states she was born 9 March 1722]. On 19 April 1728, Marguerite Maconce, daughter of Jean Maconce, was buried in the Ste Anne’s Church [www.Ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Détroit, Ste Anne, Autres Registres, 1704-1744, Image 106].

2. Marie Anne Fafard dit Maconce, daughter of Jean Fafard dit Maconce and Marguerite in legitimate marriage, was baptized 30 August 1724 at the age of about ten days in Ste Anne de Detroit. Her godparents were Sieur Jacques Hubert dit Lacroix and Demoiselle Suzanne Nolan [www.Ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Détroit, Ste Anne, Autres Registres, 1704-1744, Image 95]. Her ultimate fate is not known.
3. Nicolas Fafard dit Maconce, son of Jean Baptiste Maconce and of a Huronne in legitimate marriage, was baptized 27 July 1727 at the age of about six months in Ste Anne de Detroit. His godparents were Sieur Nicolas Catin, voyageur, and the wife of Sieur Pierre Mallet (Madeleine Thunay dite Dufresne) [www.Ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Detroit, Ste Anne, Autres Registres, 1704-1744, Image 104]. His ultimate fate is not known.
Charles François Fontaine married Élisabeth Godefroy dite St Georges, daughter of François Godefroy dit St Georges and Suzanne Pepin, 15 February 1768 in Assumption, Sandwich. The couple had nine children. Élisabeth Godefroy dite St Georges was buried 7 March 1794 from Ste Anne de Detroit. Charles François Fontaine was buried 2 November 1796 from Ste Anne de Detroit [Denissen, Vol. I, p. 478].

Charles François Fontaine’s possible son or grandson by a Native American:

1. François Lafontaine, son of François Lafontaine and a Sauvagesse, of the M--- [illegible] Nation, was baptized 2 July 1797 in Ste Anne de Detroit at the age of about 12 years. His godparents were Hyacinthe Lacelle/Laselle and Marguerite Chabert [www.ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Detroit, Ste Anne, 1780-1801, Image 557 – the transcription of Ste Anne’s records was used for this information because the original is so faint that it cannot be read. Denissen states that the mother was a Micmac, the Nation named is a much shorter name]. The ultimate fate of François Fontaine is not known.

Although Denissen [Denissen, Vol. I, p. 479], states that Charles François Fontaine was the father of this child, several factors complicate the identification of François’ father. 1) Charles François Fontaine does not appear to have ever used his full name in the Ste Anne de Detroit records; and I could find only one use of his full name for the baptism of his son, François at Assumption. He was married under the name Charles and for the baptisms of all of his remaining children, he was listed as simply Charles Fontaine; 2) Charles François Fontaine and Élisabeth Godefroy had a son François born in 1769 who could have been the father as a teenager; 3) François Lafontaine was baptized after Charles François Fontaine’s death; 4) when the marriages for Louis Fontaine (3 November 1807 in Ste Anne’s), Élisabeth Fontaine (7 March 1791 in Ste Anne’s), and Charles Fontaine (8 February 1796 in Ste Anne’s) were examined, their father was always referred to as Charles Fontaine, not as François Fontaine or as Charles François Fontaine; 5) in the previously cited marriages, their surnames were listed as Fontaine not Lafontaine; however, when Élisabeth Godefroy was buried (7 March 1794) she was listed as the wife of Lafontaine; 6) the name Charles François Fontaine appears only once in the records of Ste Anne’s and that was for the baptism of Charles François Fontaine, son of Charles Fontaine, fils, and Marie Louise Parnier; and 7) Lafontaine was a dit name used by a number of families; therefore, it is possible that François Lafontaine was not related to Charles François Lafontaine in any way.
