Louis Saint-Amant – Louise, an Ojibwa / Chippewa, Family:
Louis André dit Saint-Amant was the son of Louis André dit Saint-Amant and Marie Anne Jeanne Louise Samson. His birthdate is not known [PRDH-IGD, # 17656 – Family View].

Louis St-Amant married Louise, an Ojibwa /Chippewa, 23 March 1791 in Assumption [www.ancestry.com, Drouin Collection, D, Détroit, L’Assomption de Sandwich de Windsor, 1781-1808, Image 97]. Nothing further is known about Louis Saint-Amant and his wife. The family is not covered in Denissen.

¹ Christian Denissen, Genealogy of the French families of the Detroit River Region, 1701-1936 (Detroit: Detroit Society for Genealogical Research, revised edition, 1987) [although Denissen is fairly reliable for records in the Detroit area, it is less reliable than Jetté or PRDH for records from other areas; rarely lists all children born outside Detroit; and often confuses baptismal dates for birth dates. Researchers should verify birth dates with Jetté, PRDH, or the actual parish register. For most families, Denissen cuts off in the mid 1850s; René Jetté, Dictionnaire généalogique des familles du Québec des origines à 1730 (Montréal: Les Presses de l’Université de Montréal: 1983); Programme de recherche en démographie historique de l’Université de Montréal online: http://www.genealogie.umontreal.ca, hereafter PRDH [does not necessarily name all the children born in Détroit; the PRDH numbers generally refer to family sheets or certificates]; Sharon A.
